

NEW MEXICO CHILE ASSOCIATION

New Mexico Chile Association, Box 845, Mesilla Park, NM 88047

Membership Form

Date _____

Name _____

Company _____

Address _____

Phone # _____ Cell _____

E-Mail _____

Dues/Sponsorship Amt. $ _____ Check Cash

NMCA Membership Rates

Processor or Fresh Produce Vendor Annual Dues

- Over $20 million annual sales of chile $5500
- $10-20 million annual sales of chile $3300
- Under $10 million annual sales of chile $1650
- Under $5 million annual sales of chile $550

Manufacturer

- Over $20 million annual sales products containing chile $5500
- $10-20 million annual sales of products containing chile $3300
- Under $10 million annual sales of products containing chile $1650
- Under $5 million annual sales of products containing chile $550

Grower Annual Dues

- 80 Acres and Above $1,100
- 30-79 Acres $550
- 0-29 Acres $275

Supplier In-State - $1,100

Supplier Out of State - $550

Sponsorship (Company acknowledgement wherever available and appropriate)

- Platinum Sponsor $25,000
- Gold Sponsor $10,000
- Silver Sponsor $5,000
- Bronze Sponsor $2,500
- Copper Sponsor $1,000

Friends of the NMCA $100 (suggested donation, not a membership)

If a member fits into more than one category, they pay the dues from the highest category they belong to. For every new paid member recruited, each member may receive 10% off of their next year's dues. Bring in 10 members and next year's dues are free!

Key Contacts:

NMCA Exec. Director: Jaye Hawkins, (575) 642-4767; jayeh@nmsu.edu

NMCA President: Dino Cervantes, Cervantes Enterprises, (575) 233-3148; dinoc@ceinm.com

NMCA Secretary: Marvin Clary, Border Foods, (575) 546-8863; marvin.clary@mizkan.com

NMCA Treasurer: Rick Ledbetter, Z-7 Farms, (575) 760-6143; rickl@yucca.net

Section 6033(e)(1)(A) of the IRS code of 1986, as amended requires exempt organizations that pay or incur nondeductible lobbying expenses to notify members of its reasonable estimate of the portion of the dues allocated to non-deductible lobbying expenses. NMCA estimates that 100% of your dues are allocable to lobbying expenses and are not deductible for federal income tax purposes.